

Community Equitability Group RESILIENCY GARDENS PROJECT

Growing Food for Resiliency, Health, Food Security & Sovereignty
Empowering People, Building Community & Respecting the Land...

Resiliency is Re-Sourcing, Re-Creating, Re-Storing & Re-Envisioning...

You Will Receive: a 4' by 4' raised bed garden, healthy compost- soil, organic seeds, organic soil amendments, gardening gloves & tools, grow bags, watering can or water meter, sprouting & micro greens projects

Zoom Classes & Community

Food Distributions: 1/month, organic & local

We Request: Mutual Aid/Volunteer 2-5 hours

Suggested Donation for Gardeners: Sliding Fee Scale

Garden Program w raised bed: $10-70 per bed

Garden Program: $5-45, grow bags, only

Share the Gift of Gardening Resiliency: $70 for a garden bed for a family,

$120- a garden for your family & a garden for a family facing food insecurity

Free for Families Experiencing Food Insecurity

Photo: Oscar Vergara

Community Support: Allandale Farm, Black Earth Compost, Community Equitability Group, First Parish Needham, Green Needham, Healthy Yards, Needham, High Mowing Organic Seeds, Hillcrest Gardens, Home Depot, Needham Garden Center, MacArthur Farms, Medway Community Farm, Needham Community Farm, Needham Housing, Miller Soils Biochar, Red Fire Farm, Saint Susanna Parish, Temple Beth Shalom, The Neighborhood Farm Tractor Supply, Trader Joe's, Trees to Dreams, True Leaf Market, Volante Farms, Winter Moon Roots Farm, Whole Foods Market

For More Information or to Donate: Ellen Fine, Community Equitability Group-
Resiliency Gardens Project (781) 824-0154, ellen_bfine@yahoo.com